Home Rule School

Student Fees

Texas Education Code §11.158 and §12.108 are statutory provisions that regulate the fees that public schools may charge. Under this statute, schools may require payment for programs included but limited to optional extracurricular organizations, security deposits for materials, personal physical education or athletic apparel, personal use products such as class rings or yearbooks, musical instruments and uniforms, parking, identification cards, or driver training courses.

Public schools are required to adopt a policy for waiving student fees.
