

accountability.

It is possible for a campus to be removed from the 2019–20 PEG list. This could happen to a campus that appeals its accountability rating, and if that appeal is successful, the campus would be removed from the PEG list. Please note that while academic accountability ratings are appealable, placement on the PEG list is not. After all accountability ratings appeals are resolved, the agency will contact the superintendent of any district that has a campus removed from the PEG list.

Under the PEG interdistrict transfer provision, a parent of a student enrolled in any of the campuses listed may apply to transfer to a campus in another school district for the 2019–20 school year. A school district chosen by a student’s parent under this statute is entitled to accept or reject the application to transfer but may not use criteria that discriminate on the basis of a student’s race, ethnicity, academic achievement, athle

The district providing educational services to the student will report attendance as it would for any other student. Districts may use the State Aid Template worksheet used to calculate state aid to determine PEG funding, which receives an additional weight of 0.1. The worksheet is available at

There are no special accounting requirements or limitations on the use of PEG-related funds. Keep in mind that a district is eligible to receive PEG-weighted funding only to the extent that the number of students accepted on the basis of a PEG exceeds the number of resident students who are educated in other districts on a PEG.

Please direct questions about either the PEG program or the methodology used to determine PEG-listed campuses to the Performance Reporting Department at (512) 463-9704. Questions about funding implications should be directed to the State Funding Division at (512) 463-9238.
