

(4) Collaboration: Students develop collaboration skills to participate productively in diverse interactions within a variety of digital and social environments using the four domains of language as appropriate. The student is expected to:

[Streamline - this language may be inferred that all four domains need to be done at all times which may not be appropriate. Therefore we moved the language to the end of the KS statement noting "as appropriate."]

OR-