

Master Scheduling Considerations for Tutoring and Beyond

Adapted/Updated 7.13.23

- Schedule at least three sessions per week, each at least 30 minutes long
- Build tutoring sessions into the master schedule, if possible
- Never replace core instruction with tutoring
- Avoid scheduling models that stigmatize students receiving tutoring
- Dedicate time and resources to scheduling and rescheduling

Under HB 1416, students cannot be removed from:

in _____ for the foundation curriculum, i.e.
reading, math, science, etc.

_____ for the grade in which the student is enrolled, i.e. LOTE, Fine Arts, CTE, Health/P.E., Technology Apps, etc.

_____ that is available to other students enrolled in the same grade

Decisions and tradeoffs are informed by data Equitable access to opportunities and resources Prioritize the student and teacher experience Strengthen and sustains instructional priorities and is responsive to changing needs

and make those non-
