

Resources with information about the updated framework are now available on the 2023 Accountability Development webpage:

- Accountability Development provides a broad overview of the A-F refresh, including design commitments, timeline, and a summary of the proposed A-F refresh changes
- Accountability Development provides detailed technical descriptions of the proposed A-F refresh changes
- Accountability Development provides a summary of how stakeholder feedback has informed updates to the framework since the June release.

Stakeholders are encouraged to provide feedback through February 2023, to help inform the proposed rule. The Accountability Development will be published in proposed form in spring 2023 for additional feedback prior to becoming rule in summer 2023.

Commissioner Morath will host a webinar on the updated preliminary framework for superintendents and district accountability staff on Thursday, December 1 from 3:00-4:00pm CST.
